WHAT IS APEL?

APEL stands for Accreditation of Prior Experiential Learning.

It is a systematic process involving the identification, documentation, and evaluation of prior experiential learning, which includes knowledge, skills, and attitudes.

This process assesses whether an individual has achieved the necessary learning outcomes for programme admission or credit awards.

WHAT IS APEL.A?

- APEL.A - Accreditation of prior experiential learning for the purposes of admission/ access into a programme of study under the various Malaysian Qualifications Framework (MQF) levels.

WHY APEL.A?

APEL.A recognises the learning regardless of how or where it was acquired for programme admission. It provides opportunities for those with work experience but no academic or professional credentials to continue their education at UNITEN for the following levels of study:

- MQF Level 4 (Diploma)
- MQF Level 6 (Bachelor's Degree)
- MQF Level 7 (Master's Degree)
- MQF Level 8 (Doctoral)
